COMPLAINTS PROCEDURES SUMMARY

Agreed by Governors on 12th October 2012

The school's Governors and the Headteacher are committed to providing the best educational experience they can for all pupils attending this school. They recognise the value to all concerned of dealing fairly, speedily and effectively with any complaint against their decisions, actions or omissions, which a pupil or parent or other aggrieved person may have. To this end, they have adopted the underlying principles and procedures set out in this document.

Framework of Principles

Our complaints procedure:

- encourages resolution of problems by informal means wherever possible;
- is easily accessible and publicised;
- is simple to understand and use;
- is impartial;
- is non-adversarial;
- allows swift handling with established time-limits for action and keeping people informed of the progress;
- ensures a full and fair investigation by an independent person where necessary;
- respects people's desire for confidentiality;
- addresses all the issues and provide an effective response and appropriate redress, where necessary;
- provides information to the school's senior management team so that services can be improved.

Definition of complaint

A school complaint is any communication received from a parent or carer who expresses a concern about the teaching, conduct, actions or omissions of any member of the staff employed at the school.

A complainant is someone:

- who allegedly has been wronged
- whose child(ren) has been wronged (i.e. parent or carers or other person with parental responsibility or
- someone representing a person in one of the above groups, for example a Councillor.

Where a complainant is a pupil under the age of 18 years, the complaint may be pursued only by, or on behalf of, the child's parent or carer. Where someone other than a pupil or a parent/carer is pursuing a complaint on his or her behalf, this can be done only with the express consent of the pupil or parent concerned.

Types of complaints

Statutory/established procedures

Where there are established or statutory or other procedures for dealing with complaints, those will be followed. Areas to which this applies include:

- admissions to schools
- exclusions
- special education provision
- school re-organisation
- matters concerning the curriculum under Section 19 and 23 of the Education Reform Act 1988
- complaints by school staff or prospective staff
- child protection
- public examinations
- school records on individual pupils

Complaints not covered by established or statutory procedures

Stage 1 - Informal Stage

All complaints, however received, should be reported to the headteacher. The headteacher may refer the complaint to an appropriate member of staff to resolve the matter. That member of staff will have a duty to inform the headteacher if any issue is not resolved after discussion with the complainant. The complainant can, if they so wish, contact the Education department with their concern at this informal stage. Parents should be encouraged to settle the matter with the headteacher, class teacher or designated staff member. The majority of straightforward complaints and problems are likely to be resolved at this point.

Stage 2 - Chair of Governors/Education Department

The second stage is where the parent/carer is not satisfied with the informal response or feels it is not appropriate to contact the Headteacher. They should be advised to take up the matter in writing with the Chair of Governors. The Chair of Governors can, if they wish to do so, ask the Education department to undertake a formal investigation and provide a detailed report. If the Chair of Governors undertakes the investigation at stage 2, they will be exempt from sitting on any complaints committee convened to hear a complaint escalated to stage 3. The outcome at this stage may be:

- no further action, with reasons given
- action within the headteacher's own powers
- referral to the appropriate committee of the governing body for consideration.

Stage 3 - The Governing Body

The third stage will be where the parent/carer is not satisfied with the outcome of the stage 2 investigations and response. They will be advised to put their concerns in writing to the clerk to the Governing Body for consideration by a governors' Complaints Committee. The Committee would meet within 10 working days of the complaint being received by the clerk.

A panel of three governors with delegated powers would convene to hear the complaint at a meeting attended by the complainant, the headteacher and witnesses. Written evidence is submitted in advance to all parties and verbal evidence given at the hearing. The committee's decision is final will be notified to all parties as soon as possible after the meeting. The outcome will be one of the following:

- dismiss the complaint in whole or in part;
- uphold the complaint in whole or in part;
- decide on the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint;
- recommend changes to the school's systems or procedures to ensure that problems of a similar nature do not recur.

Timescales

The following limits should apply to all complaints handled under the schools complaints procedure:

- Stage 1: It is reasonable that parents/carers seeking to resolve matters of concern to them should receive a response within 15 working days of making initial contact, unless there is a good reason not to do so. The response should offer the complainant a full explanation or set out the steps that are proposed to resolve the complaint.
- Stage 2: Should be responded to within 15 working days from receipt of complaint escalation.
- Stage 3: Should be responded to within 20 working days from receipt of complaint escalation.

The longer time limit for Stage 3 reflects the fact that these complaints may be complex and therefore likely to take longer to resolve. Where it is not possible to respond to complaints within these timescales, the complainant should be informed in writing of the reason for the delay and given an anticipated response date.

Further Stages

Following the governors complaints committee at stage three, it is open to the complainant to pursue their complaint with the Secretary of State for Education or the office of the Ombudsman who can be contacted in writing at PO Box 4771, Coventry CV4 0EH. Local government Office advice team can be contacted on 0300 061 0614The governing body will give full consideration to any recommendations or directions the Secretary of State may make. The complainant will be advised of this course of action should they remain dissatisfied with a decision made by the governors' committee.
