Statement of Understanding of the Single Equality Plan: the statutory duties

Legal Background

Jack Tizard School is committed to meeting its public sector duties. This applies to service delivery and employment as well as policy development and implementation.

Equality Act (2010)

This Act unifies, supersedes or updates much of the previous law relating to equality. Schools are now required to ensure that pupils are protected from discrimination and harassment based on 'protected characteristics' which are:

- Disability
- Gender reassignment
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Race
- Religion or belief
- Gender
- Sexual orientation

Schools are prohibited from discriminating against, harassing or victimising:

- Prospective pupils
- Pupils at the school
- In some limited circumstances, former pupils

Positive action

The Act contains provisions which enable schools to take proportionate action to tackle particular disadvantage, different needs or disproportionately low participation of a particular group. This is not the same as positive discrimination, which means providing preferential treatment that exceeds positive action conditions. However, in the case of disabled pupils, it is never unlawful to positively discriminate in their favour.

The Act establishes three principles intended to focus on outcomes judged against local rather than imposed priorities:

- Setting of equality objectives based on local data;
- Schools to be judged on outcomes related to their identified equality objectives not on processes or action plans;
- Greater transparency in allowing public access to data.

The 2010 Equality Act also enshrines existing duties already established in law as follows:

Disability General Duty (Disability Discrimination Act 2005)

We have a statutory duty to carry out our functions with due regard to the need to:

- Promote equality of opportunity
- Eliminate unlawful discrimination
- Eliminate disability-related harassment
- Promote positive attitudes towards disabled people
- Encourage disabled people's participation in public life
- Take steps to take into account people's disabilities

Gender General Duty (Sex Discrimination Act as amended by the Equality Act 2006)

We have a statutory duty to promote gender equality with due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate unlawful sex discrimination
- Promote equality of opportunity and good relations between women and men, girls and boys

Race General Duty (Race Relations Amendment Act 2000)

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination
- Promote equality of opportunity
- Promote good relations between people of different racial groups

Community Cohesion Duty (Education and Inspections Act 2006)

Schools also have a statutory duty to promote community cohesion, which is closely linked to equalities legislation.

We will take the additional protected characteristics into account in our equalities policy and plans.

Sexual Orientation (Equality Act 2006)

The Equality Act 2006 made provision for regulations to be introduced to extend protection against discrimination on grounds of religion or belief to sexual orientation.

The Equality Act (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2007 came into force on 30 April 2007, and they make discrimination unlawful in the area of goods, facilities and services on grounds of sexual orientation. For schools this means admissions, benefits and services for pupils and treatment of pupils.

Inclusiveness is at the heart of our equality plans and as an inclusive organisation we support and promote Equality for all within our school community and in the wider community.

It is also a requirement under the Equality Act 2010 for schools to have an Accessibility Plan which shows how we are:

- Increasing the extent to which pupils with disabilities can participate in the curriculum
- Improving the environment of the school to increase the extent to which pupils with disabilities can take advantage of education and associated services
- Improving information delivery to those with disabilities

We have incorporated all policies into a Single Equality and Accessibility Plan to create a coherent framework for promoting diversity and equality within the school. The purpose of this document is to show how our school promotes equality for disabled pupils, staff, parents and the wider community. We believe in treating everyone fairly and we are committed to creating an environment in our school which is appropriate and accessible to all.

The plan will be reviewed as part of the school's self-evaluation. Related information is also contained in the school's Learning Improvement Plan and Premises Development Plan, the SEND Policy and Local Offer, and the policy on Children with Medical Needs.

We recognise that equality will only be achieved by the whole school community working together- learners, staff, governors and parents/carers .All school staff and members of the school's community have a responsibility to treat everyone fairly
